The IRS issued a helpful reminder about current charitable giving incentives. The announcement, Expanded tax benefits help individuals and businesses give to charity in 2021, highlights the above-the-line deduction (universal or nonitemizer deduction), the relaxed rules on cash donations, the hike to 100% in the amount itemizers can claim each year (up from 20% and 60% for businesses and individuals, respectively), the increase from 10% to 25% in the amount corporations can deduct, and increased limits on amounts deductible for donations of certain food inventories. Congress enacted and extended these temporary improvements during the pandemic in response to nonprofit advocacy.
